HARRIS,

The ONE-PRICE Clothier. ST. LOUIS BLOCK, MAIN STREET.

In our show window you will see some tidbits that we are of fering this week. Take a look in the one on the north and you will see some of the prettiest styles of cheap underwear ever shown in this city. The gray pattern at $1 a suit would take the cake were it not for that delicate red and blue stripe, a suit of which you can occupy if you are the happy posessor of 60 cts. Sale lasts but this week.

You are probably aware that the advent of warm weather has given a great impetus to business-not that we were idlebut we do say that trade shows the effect of Old Sol beaming upon it. because a week ago the trade seemed to know but one thing, and that was that they ought to go to Harris' and buy a suit, but it was horses' work to learn from them what they wanted. They were irresolute, hesitating between a fur coat and a linen duster, but now "a change comes o'er," etc.-they know what they want and ask for it. It is "a cheap (cheap they know where to get it.

Our trade the past month has been something incredible. We sion to join the "Kickers Wagons, Harness, Etc. Club," but-our business has increased to such an extent that we feel we owe an obligation to our patrons for their more than liberal patronage, and hereby acknowledge it.

We sometimes wonder what gives occasion for people to remark, "Why. Harris, your store is the only one in town that seems to be doing any business." We might tell them with some degree of truth that | to suit. the reason therefor lay in the fact that we work harder for trade, we give greater inducements to trade and show a better selected stock than any inducements we offer is our line of medium priced suits. A man of ordinary intelligence is aware that it is not a feat worthy of mention to sell low priced goods at low prices, but it is a point worthy of consideration to sell good, durable articles, and at low prices. It is the tricksters' favorite game to cut in price, parade the fact with loud noise and a flourish 106 of trumpets, and at the same time conceal the fact that he is cutting in quality, also. We are forced to these remarks by the host of imitators who, seeing the result of our popular matched them in quality. We will show them a trick worth two like that before the season is over; but in the meantime we will announce that we have just a few of those 'Ten Dollar Suits left, some sixty three in all. Now, as a matter of fact they will be gone by the end of the week, so acyone wanting tnem had better pile in as roon as the announcement is made, or they will all be gone.

The south window shows a hery that makes you think of the prize window dressing of the metropolis. It is the work f the inimitable Nash, and any durable WIPES you there see can be bought for this week or till sold

The Victors Well Taught and in Perfect Form, While Their Opponents Lacked Skill and St ength,

New London, Conn., June 28 .- The fourteenth annual four-mile straightaway ing the universities of Yale and Harvard was rowed this evening over the Thames river course, and was won by Yale by six boat lengths. The official time is: Yale, 21:30; Harvard, 21:55. The series of races between these colleges now stand: Yale, 8 victories; Harvard, 6 victories. Yale also holds the record for the fastest time over the course, 20:10, made last year. The crowd which saw the race to-day was unusually large, there being several more thousand strangers in town than for several years. All the desirable points along the course were packed with people. The race was originally set for 11 o'clock,

The race was originally set for II o'clock, but was postponed until evening on account of rough water.

The crews were promptly sent away at 7:30. Harvard started off with a stroke of thirty-two and Yale thirty-two. At the end of the quarter mile Yale took the lead by about ten feet. Both crews were in excellent form and in the next quarter mile neither could gain an inch. Just after neither could gain an inch. Just after passing the half mile flag Harvard took the lead about ten feet. This Harvard held The Atchison to Withdraw.
